15	An evidentiary hearing on supervised release revocation in this case was scheduled before
16	me on December 15, 2005. The United States was represented by AUSA Andrew C. Friedman
17	and the defendant by Timothy McGarry. The proceedings were recorded on cassette tape.
18	Defendant had been sentenced on or about February 4, 2000, by the Honorable John C.
19	Coughenour on a charge of Bank Robbery and sentenced to 46 Months Custody, three years
20	Supervised Release.
21	The conditions of supervised release included requirements that defendant comply with
22	all local, state, and federal laws and with the standard conditions of supervision. Other special
23	conditions included narcotic addiction/drug dependency treatment and testing, refrain from
24	alcohol and other intoxicants, submit to search, participate in a mental health program, and
25	restitution in the amount of $1,717.53. (Dkt. 20)

a halfway house for up to 120 days. (Dkt. 23). An additional 120 days was added on July 16, 2003. (Dkt. 24).

A warrant was issued on July 29, 2003, based on a report from defendant's probation officer alleging that he had failed to abide by the rules and regulations of the halfway house, failed to report for urinalysis testing, failed to report a change of residence, and failing to participate in drug and mental health counseling. (Dkt. 25). The conditions of supervised release were modified on September 13, 2004, to require residence in a halfway house for up to 120 days, to secure employment and participate in substance abuse and/or mental health treatment as required by his probation officer. (Dkt. 33).

In an application dated November 15, 2005, U.S. Probation Officer Michael J. Larson alleged the following violations of the conditions of supervised release:

- 1. Committing the crime of Bank Robbery on or about November 14, 2005, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2113(a) and the mandatory condition of supervised release prohibiting him from committing another federal, state or local crime.
- 2. Using cocaine on or about October 5, 2005, in violation of standard condition number seven.
- 3. Failing to submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of the month for September 2005 and October 2005 in violation of standard condition number two.
- 4. Failing to notify the probation officer at least ten days prior to any change in residence, in violation of standard condition number six.
- 5. Failing to make restitution payments in monthly installments as directed by the probation officer for June 2005, July 2005, and August 2005 in violation of the special condition requiring he pay restitution during the period of supervision as directed by the probation officer.

Defendant appeared before the Honorable Monica J. Benton on November 17, 2005, and was advised in full as to those charges and as to his constitutional rights. He requested an evidentiary hearing. On November 21, 2005, defendant admitted violations two through five 02 of the alleged violations and waived any evidentiary hearing as to whether they occurred. He 03 requested an evidentiary hearing on violation number one, which was scheduled for 04 December 15, 2005. On that date, he admitted violation one and waived any evidentiary hearing 05 as to whether it occurred. 06 I therefore recommend the Court find defendant violated his supervised release as alleged 07 and that the Court conduct a hearing limited to the issue of disposition. The next hearing will 08 be set before the Hon. John C. Coughenour. 09 Pending a final determination by the Court, defendant has been detained. 10 DATED this 15th day of December, 2005. P. Donolue
